

Public Speaking (in English)

Have you ever been to a job interview? Have you ever been asked to give a presentation to a potential client? To stand up and say a few words about a given topic? To speak to a journalist? To speak to your colleagues at the meeting? I expect most people have had to face at least one of these situations. Although you might not have thought about it in this way they are forms of public speaking. Whatever the occasion the ability to speak clearly and confidentially is a great skill to have. And it is a skill you can learn. All you need are a few tricks and time to practice.

The plan:

- Getting started: Why am I giving the speech?
Who am I talking to? What am I trying to achieve?
- Planning the structure: Introduction, Body, Conclusions.
How to write a Route Map using some keywords?
- Delivery: What words should be chosen?
What visual aids should I use?
What should I do with my body?
How to fight with my nerves?
- Time for questions
- Time for you to prepare and deliver the presentation

During this training you will learn all the practical techniques needed to plan, write and present any speech successfully. You will get to know how to stay calm and how to establish audience rapport. And the most important you will have a chance to practice all the things you got to know. This is the training for you! Do not hesitate, enroll for it now!
